REFLECTIVE JOURNAL

GRIT COACHES

GUIDELINES FOR REFLECTIVE JOURNALING

There are no wrong turns here! Here are some friendly pointers to guide you on this adventure:

- Find Your Spark: What ignites your curiosity? Is it a recent experience, a quote that resonated, or simply a desire to explore? Let that be your starting point.
- Embrace the Flow: Don't worry about perfect grammar or spelling. This is a space for raw and honest expression. Write freely, let your pen dance across the page, and see where your thoughts take you.
- Be Kind to Yourself: Don't be afraid to express negative emotions too. Journaling can be a safe space to process challenges and find ways to move forward.
- Make it a Habit: Even a few minutes a day can make a difference. Find a time that works best for you - a quiet morning ritual, a reflective moment before bed, or whenever inspiration strikes.
- Let Your Creativity Bloom: Drawings, doodles, poems, or even song lyrics - anything that helps you capture your experience is welcome!
- Celebrate Small Wins: Did you finally understand a complex problem? Did you overcome a personal obstacle? Take a moment to acknowledge your progress.

PROMPTS FOR YOUR JOURNAL:

- How do I feel about my progress on the course?
- What is working well in my sessions?
- What am I unsure about?
- Where do I feel most confident?
- What do I feel least confident about?
- What have I learned about myself?
- What have I learned about my coaching?
- What can I do differently?
- Where do I want to focus my attention?

MODULE REFLECTION

Module 1 : Coaching Foundations

Date:

1. What is going well?

2. What would i like to focus on?

3. What is my biggest learning?

4. How do I feel about my progress on the course?

5. What do I feel least confident about?

MODULE 2 : COGNITIVE BEHAVIORAL COACHING

Date:

1. What is working well in my sessions?

2. What am I unsure about?

3. What have i learnt about myself?

4. What can I do differently

MODULE 3 : NLP IN COACHING

Date:

1. What has been my biggest takeaway ?

2. What have I learnt about my Coaching?

3. Where would I like to focus my attention?

4. What can I do differently?

MODULE 4 : COACHING TOOLS

Date:

1. What is working well in my sessions?

2. What am I finding challenging?

3. What key insights did I have about myself ?

4. How do I feel about my progress so far?

END-OF-COURSE REFLECTION

As we are at the end of the course, this is a great time for you take some time to reflect on the course. Think about how you have reflected during the course, Write down how your reflections have helped you as you have navigated this course and it's learning.

Remember as with all reflections, this is your story.

Reflection Statement: